Rokita Statement on International Holocaust Remembrance Day

Washington, DC – Today Rep. Todd Rokita released the following statement marking International Holocaust Remembrance Day:

“As we take time this International Holocaust Remembrance Day—the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau—to remember the millions of Jews systematically murdered and reflect on the atrocities committed across Europe by the Nazis, we must rededicate ourselves to ensuring similar events can never again occur. Even today, anti-Semitism is alive across the world and the Jewish state of Israel remains under threat from neighbors who refuse to acknowledge its right to exist, pursue weapons of mass destruction and pledge to wipe Israel off the map. The United States must stand with Israel against all threats from dictators, terrorists and others committed to Israel’s destruction.”
